

Urgent Appeal

Donations to the victims of earthquake in Haiti

(An appeal to all Scout members for donating HK$50 or more)

A ruthless earthquake, measuring 7 on the Richter magnitude scale, has badly struck the Caribbean country of Haiti on 13 January. The majority of buildings including government offices, hospitals and schools collapsed in the capital city of Port-au-Prince. Water and power supply have been cut off and the hygienic condition is worsening. The disaster has brought about 75,000 deaths and 250,000 injuries, and made 1 million people homeless. The death toll is expected to exceed 100,000.

In the spirit of helping others, I sincerely appeal to all Scout members to donate HK$50 or more each to the designated bank account of Scout Association of Hong Kong. All donations collected will be forwarded to Scouts d'Haiti for the urgent relief and rehabilitation work in the affected areas.
