

Cathay Aviation Certificate Programme 2020 Scout Internal Interview

Co-organised by Cathay Pacific Airways, Scout Association of Hong Kong and Hong Kong Air Cadet Corps, the “Cathay Aviation Certificate Programme” (CACP) is a programme designed to educate, motivate and inspire young people who are interested in pursuing an aviation-related career by offering them a comprehensive aviation training programme and a range of aviation activities. One of the CACP highlights is that each participants will be guided throughout by pilots of Cathay Pacific or Cathay Dragon, who will act as mentors and offer career and personal development advices.

The CACP is well-recognized among the local aviation entities. Participants successfully completed the CACP will stand a very good chance of entering the industry. Over 40 percent of the Programme’s graduates have already embarked their career in the aviation industry, including working as flight dispatchers, air traffic controllers, aircraft engineers, cabin crew and pilots.

Online application for the 2020 CACP will be opened between November and December 2019. Successful ones will then take part in a nine-month intensive aviation-related training programme, facility visits and will board a scheduled Cathay Pacific or Cathay Dragon service for an observation flight with his/her pilot mentor inside the cockpit..

As a co-organiser of the CACP, Scout Association of Hong Kong may nominate potential and capable scout members to attend the First Interview of the CACP directly. Qualified scout members are invited to attend the internal interview for scout members, which will be held at Hong Kong Scout Centennial Centre in December 2019 as follows:-
