

Extension of Service Hours of Scout Association of Hong Kong Library

This Circular substitutes Administration Circular No. 38/2019 issued on 15 October 2019.

To provide readers with more convenient, flexible and better services, the Hong Kong Scout Association Library (SAHK Library) will extend the service hours from 15 October 2020. A self-service device with a new library service platform has been equipped for this end. Meanwhile, the service hours of the Discussion Zone will also be extended for readers to conduct self-study or group discussion while using the library.

With effect from 15 October 2020, the service hours of SAHK Library and Discussion Zone will be as follows:

Facilities	Service Hours
SAHK Library (Room 808) and Discussion Zone (Room 809)	Monday – Friday 4:00 p.m. – 10:00 p.m. Saturday, Sunday and Public Holidays 10:00 a.m. – 10:00 p.m.

Library Service Desk will open on every Wednesday (except Public Holidays) from 6:30p.m. to 9:00p.m. for assistance and general enquiry. Readers can browse the library catalogue by visiting: <http://library.scout.org.hk>.

To borrow books or reference materials, please apply for a SAHK Library Card. For SAHK Library Card Application Form (Form LB/01e), please click here to download from the Association's website. The latest version of SAHK Library Rules and Regulations have been posted in the Library for reference.

Should you have enquiries, please contact Miss Kay CHONG, staff of Leadership Training Institute, at 2835 7736 / ltioff@scout.org.hk.

Simon HO
Acting Assistant Chief Commissioner
(Leadership Training Institute)